

Vernae Taylor is an authorpreneur, speaker, mentor, performing artist, founder & CEO of Triple Threat Vision, LLC. Her path to entrepreneurship began in 2019 when she shared her unique story alongside global authorities, Les Brown and Johnny Wimbrey in Break Through. Following a successful launch and during the 2020 pandemic, she went on to author and co-author: Letters to my Father, The Evolution Effect, Our Truth is Not a Lie, Life of an Entrepreneur 4th Edition. She was also nominated as Inspirational CEO of "Who's Who of 2020" by the Urban CEO Network and appeared in their magazine. She's starred in the National Tour, Almost Heaven - Songs of John Denver; Balance of Love in Atlantic City casinos; Off Broadway musical, Another Chance; "Short Film of the Year," Zahra and the Oil Man; as female lead in R&B music video, Kick Back & Vibe and "award winning" short, Girl in the Mirror, where she also made her writer's debut. She's recently partnered with Taylor Branding Co., including online series, Reality Vibez; TV pilot, Ready to Grow, and family talk show, Taylor Made4u. Future projects include: Your Voice Matters, "I'm Still Breaking Through..." journal and workbook and the development of the Breakthrough Network.